

Tobin, “Go beyond Usability with Universal Design for Learning”

Participant Rating Results

Attendance: 27

Responses: 21

1. This session’s information will be useful to me in my job.
2. The description matched what I experienced in the session.
3. The facilitator demonstrated good presentation skills.
4. Over all, this was a good session.

5. In a few words, share your over-all impression of this session.

- Good PSA but I feel uncertain how to apply these ideas in a constructive way.
- Good, energetic presentation. I would have liked to discuss more examples of what UDL methods and assessments look like across the disciplines.
- I learned some approaches I can use. I am committed to improving access for all students.
- Informative w/ a comical & light-hearted way of sharing the info.
- Informative, thought-provoking, helpful.
- Inspirational!!
- It was helpful for my own work in the ASL; sorry that I had to run early.
- My only thought is that I wish we could make UDL training mandatory for all faculty.
- Thought-provoking with lots of good ideas for implementation.
- Very good content.