Dear Tom,

On behalf of Tarrant County College, I want to thank you for your participation as the lead-off keynote speaker for the 2021 Learning Symposium, Bridging the Distance. It turned out to be a very successful and well-attended day-long event. With 1,688 registered, we had nearly 1,200 remain engaged throughout the day. Your session, Bridging the Distance: 3 Keys for Remote Teaching Success, was extremely well received and one of the most popular with 1443 unique viewers in your presentation.

Thank you for sharing your knowledge and being so engaging. I knew you and your session would be a great hit, and it was. I particularly appreciate that you did your upfront research to learn more about the community college audience you addressed. It was evident to the participants because it was commented that it sounded like you knew them while speaking directly to their needs. Others said they could have listened to you for hours. Your presentation set the positive tone for the other 16 sessions that followed yours. We greatly appreciate all you did for faculty and students. Please accept the enclosed memorabilia as a thank you for your participation.

You made this day special and possible, so I am wishing you a successful and wonderful 2021. Keep up the good work you do. One of the best parts of working in our field is the people we meet. It was such a pleasure working with you.

Kind regards,
