5. In a few words, share your overall impression of the session.

- Amazing! I am walking away with an understanding of how to decolonize my classroom through access, assessment, and inclusion!
- Excellent session! I really liked the intermix of presentation from the speaker and conversation among and with the attendees. I will apply the idea of short music breaks to “hold the space” and allow participants to think.
- Exceptional session! So many thought-provoking ideas and opportunities for interaction. Tom Tobin is a master!
- Good information and useful to hear the speaker’s perspectives on this!
- Great “hook” for the start of the sessions!
- Great speaker, loved the general tips but then using participant presentation to build and give examples. This kept me engaged throughout.
- Relax, focus on learning, not teaching.
- So clear, positive, encouraging! Gives me hope.
- This was very well presented and a perfect format with presentation and then round table via chat.
- Very engaging.
