2	to be honest, I didn't exactly know what the session is about for about 30 minutes. I probably should've done a better job reading the abstract for the session, but it didn't become clear that we were discussing teacher ratings or teacher assessment for a very long time. The speaker was highly engaging, his slides were well designed, and he certainly made everyone feel welcome. But as far as content and the message for the day, it was hard to fully appreciate the session.	6/10/2025 10:11 AM
3	I didn't attend this session, but it was on my short list. I would be interested in a future session on this topic that is a little more instructor-practical and doesn't sound like a thesis.	6/9/2025 9:04 PM
